

Radisson Lackawanna Station Hotel, Scranton

Pet Policy

Dear Guest,

Thank you for choosing the Radisson Lackawanna Station Hotel. We know that your dog is part of your family and we would like to accommodate him or her just as any other guest in our hotel. To best serve all our guests we ask that you please review this policy regarding pets as guests in the hotel.

There will be a one time $70.00 service charge, and a $10.00 occupancy charge per night for keeping a dog in your room. The deposit is to cover the cost of cleaning the room after you have departed. It is hotel policy that if your dog is not crated or the owner is not present that it is up to the discretion of the housekeeper whether or not to service your room.

Dogs MUST NOT disturb other guests. For this reason we ask that you please give us a cell phone number so that we may reach you if you are not in your room and your dog is creating a disturbance. Please fill in your cell number below. Fair warning will be given only once following any noise complaints. A second warning over noise will cause us to either remove the dog to another location or evict all parties from the hotel with no refund. If the hotel has to remove the animal due to you not being able to be reached, the guest will be responsible for any charges incurred in removing the animal, kennel charges, and any other charges that were incurred by the hotel.

Having a dog that causes any damage to the guest room or any other area of the hotel will cause additional charges to be put on the person registered to the guest room's bill to repair all damages caused by the animal.

Dogs will be allowed in the hotel at our discretion. The hotel reserves the right to refuse accommodation to anyone with a dog. Pets are to be taken into the hotel through side doors only, as to avoid areas with food.

Certain breeds of dogs will not be allowed based upon their inherent demeanor, for example: Pit Bulls, Rotweillers, and any other potentially threatening animals.

Animals used for physical assistance are not subject to the $70.00 service charge however the owner may be liable if the dog causes any damage to the hotel property.

Due to the restaurant outlets on property, we ask that dogs be escorted through the side doors rather than the front doors which lead into our lobby.
