

Pet Policy

Dear Guest,

Thank you for choosing the Radisson Lackawanna Station Hotel. We know that your pet is a part of your family, and we would like to accommodate him or her just as any other guest in our hotel. To best serve all of our guests, we ask that you please review this policy regarding pets as guests in the hotel.

There will be a one time $75 service charge for keeping a pet in your room. This is to cover the cost of deep cleaning the room after you have departed. It is hotel policy that Housekeeping services not be provided during your stay. If there are any items or service you require, please contact the Front Desk, and we would be happy to provide you with whatever you need.

Pets MUST NOT disturb other guests. For this reason, we ask that you please give us a cell phone number so that we may reach you if you are not in your room and your pet is creating a disturbance. While you are not in the room, the pet must be crated to avoid disturbance or damage. Fair warning will be given only once following any noise complaints. A second warning over this will cause us to either remove the pet to another location or evict all parties from the hotel with no refund. If the hotel has to remove the animal and you cannot be reached, the guest is responsible for any charges incurred including kennel charges, and any other charges incurred by the hotel.

Having a pet that causes any damage to the guestroom or any other area of the hotel will cause additional charges to be put on the registered guests' room bill for any repairs to damage by the animal.

Pets will be allowed in the hotel at our discretion. The hotel reserves the right to refuse accommodation to anyone. Certain breeds of animals will not be allowed based on their inherent demeanor, for example: Pit Bulls, Rottweilers, and any other potentially threatening animals.

Animals used for physical assistance are not subject to the $75 service charge; however the owner may be liable if the dog causes any damage to hotel property.
